It's News Here!

Cheboygan Man Killed In Motorcycle Accident

Stanley Gasiorak, 73, of Cheboygan, died Saturday after a motorcycle accident on County Road 612 about two miles west of Frederic. Sheriff deputies said Gasiorak apparently drifted off the roadway, lost control of the motorcycle, and rolled it over. Herbert and Bernice Wheeler, both 62, from Cheboygan, were on another motorcycle and they also lost control of their bike in the same location. They were transported to Mercy Hospital by the Frederic Township Ambulance Corps. The accidents occurred about 12:50 p.m. and Grayling City Police assisted the sheriff deputies at the scene.

Police Rouse Sleeping Man Out of Building on Fire

A Grayling man sleeping in the upstairs apartment above the Grayling Vision Center was woken up by police who spotted a fire in the apartment. City patrolman Devries and reserve officer Kinsora noticed a fire in the downtown building and sheriff deputies Golicnik and Parker along with city patrolman Pellerito responded to assist with the call. The officers used fire extinguishers to knock down most of the fire and woke up a man sleeping in the apartment. The Grayling Fire Dept. put out the rest of the fire in the historical Salling-Hanson building. Police are investigating possible arson in the May 24 fire.

In other police news, $90 was taken from the Little Mexico restaurant May 27 when someone broke in through the roof. Grayling City police have a suspect and a warrant is expected to be issued soon.

Sheriff Dept., City Police Represented at Otsego Funerals

Sheriff deputies Todd Golicnik, Paul Smith, and Charles Ryan along with city patrolman Scott Pellerito attended the funeral of Otsego County former sheriff Dowker last week. Both departments were also represented by a large number of personnel at the funeral last month of Otsego County sheriff deputy Carl Darling, who was killed while on duty.

Children Found Quickly after Searches

Three local children were found safe last week after searches were started by parents, volunteers, and authorities.

On Wednesday, Larry Kneff, a second-grader, was found in the Jones Lake Road area near his grandfather's home. He was discovered missing from school and he was found by 2:45 p.m. before school was out.

Both police dogs, Lex and Gator, assisted in the search.

On Thursday, Jill St. Germain, 3, and Brian McCurdy, 4, decided to walk from St. Germain's home on 305 Chestnut to McCurdy's home on Glenn Road. The sheriff dept., city police, and national guard joined parents and volunteers in the search and the children were located at the McCurdy home within two hours after first discovered missing.

Police remind area residents that there is no waiting period in Crawford County to report a missing child. Missing children can be reported immediately to the sheriff dept. or city police.

Plans for 1986-87 Year Announced By Schools

Crawford AuSable school officials have announced plans for the 1986-87 school year early to prepare parents for the many changes resulting from the middle school remodeling. The middle school building and gymnasium is expected to be out of use for the entire 1986-87 school year.

Here are some of the changes slated for next year. Most of this information appears in a brochure which has been sent to parents in the district.

At The High School

All students in grades 7-12 will attend Grayling High School. The high school program will remain unchanged. The current middle school program taught by present middle school teachers will be offered in its entirety to students in grades 7 and 8. The facility will be strained beyond capacity and two temporary classrooms will be constructed as an isolated, safely separated part of the new bus garage in order to provide sufficient space for all 800 students. Most classrooms will be used every hour of the day.

Increased supervision will be added with aides to supervise hallways, bus loading and unloading, and lunch. Supervisory aides will be on duty from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m., the later hours allowing for supervision before and after extracurricular practices. Telephones will be attended during the same hours.

High school students will eat lunch in the cafeteria and middle school students will eat on the mezzanine of the gym.

The present Community School office will be used as a middle school office and the library conference room will be used as a middle school counseling office. The Community School office will be moved to the conference room next to the business classrooms. Dale Nicholas, Middle School Principal, and Mike Gardiner, Counselor, will each spend about 2/3 of their time at the high school and 1/3 of their time at the Grayling Elementary. All contact with the school regarding students in grades 7 and 8 should be through the middle school offices which will be staffed throughout the entire day.

At Grayling Elementary

All students in grade six will attend the Grayling Elementary as will Grayling area students in grades K-4. All existing and new classrooms will be utilized as will the two portable classrooms. The existing program for K-4 students will remain unchanged. Sixth grade students will take the five basic sixth grade academic classes — reading, Language Arts, Science, Mathematics, Social Studies — and one period per day of enrichment classes rotating between Spanish, Library Skills, Study Skills, Problem Solving, and Physical Education. Sixth grade band will be bused to the high school at 1:50 daily for band during the last period.

Free Fish Days Set For June 7 - 8 Weekend

Governor Blanchard signed into law, April 24, 1986, legislation sponsored by State Senator Connie Binsfeld (R-Maple City) to designate two days of free fishing in Michigan waters. The Department of Natural Resources has set June 7 and 8, 1986, as free fish days in Michigan.

"We have some of the finest fishing in the world," said Binsfeld, adding, "and we just don't do enough to promote it. Having free fish days in Michigan gives our state the opportunity to show off the wonderful fishing we have in the state, spark license sales, and give our Michigan families an opportunity to enjoy, as a family, the beauty and resources of Michigan."

of the day, the enrichment period. Computer instruction will be taking place in regular classrooms. One computer will be located in each sixth grade classroom.

Contact with the school regarding all students attending Grayling Elementary should be through the Grayling Elementary office.

Sixth grade students will be governed by elementary rules and with the exception of changing classes each period, will follow the elementary program including regularly scheduled recess periods.

At Frederic Elementary

All students in grade five will attend the Frederic Elementary as will Frederic students in grades K-4 and all students in the Developmental Kindergarten and Primary Room. The existing program will remain unchanged. Fifth grade band will be held at the Frederic Elementary in the gymnasium daily at 1:00.

Busing

Busing patterns will be similar to 1985-86. Pickups will begin at the same time as 85-86 and afternoon dropoffs will be approximately twenty minutes earlier. Special bus route information will be published in the school calendar mailed to all school families in late July and in the August 28 start of school issue of the Crawford County Avalanche. Grayling fifth grade, primary room and DK students will be bused to the Frederic Elementary each morning with buses leaving the Grayling Elementary at 8:25. Bus students will therefore ride their regular bus to the Grayling Elementary and then transfer to the bus to Frederic. Frederic sixth grade students will be bused to the Grayling Elementary leaving Frederic at 8:20. Grayling fifth grade and primary room students and Frederic sixth grade students will be bused to the high school at the end of the day where they will transfer to the buses that will take them home. The transfer will take place before the high school dismissal time and will be supervised by two aides.

Grayling town pickups and dropoffs for students in grades 7-12 will take place at Spruce and Vine and at Rose and Vine. The middle school site will not be used as a bus pickup or dropoff site.

Extra Curricular Activities

Existing extracurricular activities will continue. Scheduling of facilities will be difficult as the middle school gymnasium will not be available during all of 1986-87. Some athletic teams may have to schedule practices at less than ideal times. Teams that have been accustomed to having a gym alone may have to share the gym for practice. The Grayling Elementary gym may have to be used on some occasions. All basketball and volleyball games and wrestling meets will be held at the high school.

LEAVE FAWNS ALONE — DNR Conservation Officer Bruce Patrick holds a three-day-old fawn who will never see its mother again — just because some well-intended person picked up the fawn thinking it was in trouble. Patrick urged anyone seeing a fawn to leave it alone. He said the only defense mechanism a young deer has is to lie down to use its camouflage. If you leave a fawn alone, it will usually get up in a minute and rejoin its mother. This fawn won't have the chance to rejoin its mother because someone picked it up. Patrick had to take the fawn to a Kalkaska camp where they attempt the difficult job of feeding the young fawns and raising them. (Jon Thompson Photo)

Twelve Candidates Seek Positions in June 9th Annual School Election

Twelve candidates are on the ballot Monday, June 9, seeking positions with the Crawford AuSable Schools Board of Education, C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District Board of Education, and Kirtland Community College Board of Trustees.

In the local school board race, two candidates, Fred Allen and Steve Langseth, are on the ballot seeking two four-year terms. Allen, employed with the United States Postal Service, is seeking re-election to the board. Langseth, employed with Weyerhaeuser, is seeking his first term to the board.

Mary Allen, whose term also expires this year, decided not to seek re-election.

In the Kirtland Community College race, six candidates are seeking three six-year terms to the Board of Trustees. The six candidates on the ballot are Charles Oppy, George Frye, Robert Bovee, Timothy Branch, May Lance, and Dale Sheltown.

Community Welcomes New Georgia-Pacific Plant

More than 200 persons enjoyed a display of "southern hospitality" Saturday as officials from the Atlanta-based Georgia-Pacific Company held a ground-breaking ceremony for their new $8 million Beaver Creek resin plant.

On the new plant site along Four Mile east of Weyerhaeuser, Georgia-Pacific had a huge tent erected on an asphalt parking lot recently paved for the plant.

Underneath the tent, the Grayling Holiday Inn catered enough food and refreshments to fill two long rows of tables along the north and northeast end.

A stage was built with Georgia-Pacific materials under one end of the tent and in the middle were chairs and green outdoor carpet laid along walkways. The Grayling Dixieland band provided music for the ceremonies.

Jim Taylor, vice-president of the Georgia-Pacific chemical division, said the ceremonies were Georgia-Pacific's way of saying thank you for the dedication, responsibility, and cooperation community leaders showed when deciding if Georgia-Pacific would be a good asset to the community.

Taylor said at the ceremonies that he expected the plant to start production by October 1st.

Ground-breaking already has started at the site and construction is expected to proceed on schedule.

Georgia-Pacific executive vice-president

Jim Van Meter said the Beaver Creek plant is the 15th resin plant for Georgia-Pacific and it will be the showcase plant for the entire division.

The new plant site is about 16 acres bordered on the north by Four Mile Road, the south by the Weyerhaeuser Strukturwood plant, the east by the Detroit & Mackinac railroad, and on the west by the Weyerhaeuser access road.

Taylor announced at the ceremonies that Georgia-Pacific does have a long-term agreement with Weyerhaeuser to supply resin. Taylor said Howard Meck, the Weyerhaeuser plant manager, and other Weyerhaeuser staff members were extremely helpful in providing assistance to Georgia-Pacific concerning decisions about the Beaver Creek plant.

The Beaver Creek plant will be capable of producing 200,000,000 pounds a year of urea-formaldehyde and phenol formaldehyde thermo-setting resins and polyamide wet strength resin.

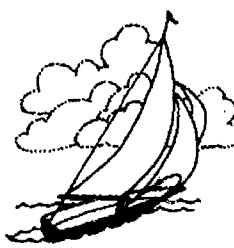

Besides selling the phenol-formaldehyde resin to Weyerhaeuser, Georgia-Pacific plans to sell the three types of resins to building products plants and paper converting plants throughout the midwest.

Detailed site plans for the new plant were on display at the ceremonies and copies of an environmental assessment study prepared by Swanson Environmental, Inc., were available to persons attending.

From Our Corner...

Another week of bits and pieces, things and such that happened to enter the life of the ol' fella the past week along with a few quotables...with that introduction, you have our permission to leave the turkey, and turn to more educational reading such as the want ad pages...

Following the little get-together for some 400 citizens put on by the Georgia-Pacific Corporation in their celebration of the ground breaking for their new Resin Plant in Beaver Creek last Saturday afternoon we must say, if Georgia-Pacific is as first class with their new endeavor in Beaver Creek as they were with the ground breaking party, we predict a long and lasting relationship between the Corporation and Crawford County...

We put last week's turkey together on Monday (the designated Memorial Day), and later we talked to our Buckeye family...so the following was too late for last week, and to make amends with our number two granddaughter, Stefany, we wish our readers to know that she and her mom, Toni, participated in the "Hands Across America" near Lorain, Ohio...I don't know if she got a pin or anything, except knowing she was among some 5 million that took part...along with President Ronald Reagan...

For the diehard golfers...Dr. Robert Schwarz, Chiropractic Physician in Grayling, we understand has played a bit of golf in his time, and so that possibly helped with the following...

Doc, a new member at Hidden Valley at Gaylord, had the first hole in one for the season on the golf course there...Doc ached the 6th hole, and finished the 18 holes with a 68...the foursome was made up of his wife June and Melvin and Ruth Nielson...

An idle thought...maybe next year, when I have a couple hours to spare we could get Doc to show the ol' fella how to hold a golf club...on second thought...I don't think there is anyone who would have the patience...with a duffer...

Following our efforts on the designated Memorial Day column, we have been asked a few times if I had any responses...we had a few and all for some strange reason have agreed with the ol' fella...

Shucks, if you're going to play games with one holiday why not all of them...we have always been a believer that Memorial Day was a day to give homage to those who died for our country...the 30th of May...

To simplify matters we have a few suggestions...New Year's Day will be the first Monday in January...Valentine's Day, first Monday in February...St. Pat's Day all the month of March for the Leprechauns...April, sorry, hope for April showers...Memorial Day the first Monday in May...June, make sure all graduates have signed diplomas...Fourth of July, first Monday in July...August, stay out of the high noon sun...September, they already have the first Monday for Labor Day...October, make Halloween a national holiday, that's when we quit, so it can be all of the Mondays...November, Thanksgiving, the first Monday...December, Christmas the last Monday, that gives you two whole months to last minute shop between turkey day and a sacred day...

With that, all those hard workers will have all kinds of three day weekends, and it would help the printer, to just worry about putting red ink on Mondays...

A few quotables...so grin and bear it...

"A woman drove me to drink and I never even had the courtesy to thank her", W.C. Fields.

"Smile, it makes people wonder what you are thinking," Murphy's Laws on Sex.

"I have my faults but being wrong ain't one of them," Jimmy Hoffa.

"It's a good thing that beauty is only skin deep, or I'd be rotten to the core," Phyllis Diller.

Don't you wish now you would have taken my invitation to leave and read the want ads?... Time to bid our three gals, T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight, and to all have a nice weekend...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

THE TRUE CHURCH

"What do we mean when we say, 'Outside the Church there is no salvation?' When we say, 'Outside the Church there is no salvation', we mean that those who through their own grave fault do not know that the Catholic Church is the true Church, or knowing it, refuse to join it, cannot be saved. All are obligated to belong to the Catholic Church in order to be saved." "My Catholic Faith" by Louis Morrow. Jehovah Witnesses say only they are going to heaven. Mormons believe they are the true church and way to heaven. We could multiply the list.

Add to this confusion, a recent poll published by Reader's Digest which said 83% of Americans polled stated that their religion taught them that it is wrong to criticize, or condemn another religion. Religious freedom is being interpreted as freedom from religious criticism. Americans have been deceived into accepting religious censor as religious freedom. Those who believe and obey the Bible, and love the souls of people, are branded as evil religious villains. We are called sinful and wrong for exposing error as evil. We face unbelievable prejudice and pressure for simply believing and practicing our historic faith.

If the true church is the spiritual body of Christ, (Col. 1:18, 24), of which we through personal faith in our Lord Jesus Christ are members, (1 Cor. 12:27; Eph 5:30), and we were baptized into this body by the Holy Spirit, (1 Cor. 12:13), then salvation is the work of a sovereign God, and man must have the soul liberty to respond. The fact that God has revealed to us a book of Holy Scriptures demands we have the soul liberty to obey them according to the dictates of our own conscience. (John 8:32, 36).

If the true church is a physical church with headquarters in Rome, then the Roman Catholic Church can justify the killing of heretics, forced baptism of babies, baptism of entire communities under threat of the sword, and continued efforts to control world religion. She can also justify the Vatican/Fascist Concordat signed by Mussolini in 1929, the Hitler/Vatican Concordat signed in June, 1933, and the Vatican/Moscow Alliance signed in 1960. The church remains in a position to control the world. As Catholic author Father Francis E. Fenton wrote, "Once the implacable foe of the International Communist Conspiracy, the Church has withdrawn from the field of battle. Once the arch enemy of Communism, the Roman Catholic Church has become, especially under Pope Paul VI, a collaborator with it."

Our privilege to proclaim truth and expose error is being limited - so may be your decision of faith.

YOUR WEEK AHEAD HOROSCOPE

Forecast Period: 6/8-6/14/86

ARIES Mar. 21-Apr. 19 Keep the lines of communication open with family members. Look for the hidden message. Details are significant.

TAURUS Apr. 20-May 20 Take care in travelling that your mind is on what you're doing. Attention lapses can bring some hairy experiences.

GEMINI May 21-June 20 Little white lies create confusion and mistrust. Face the facts. Confront the situation in a straight-forward manner.

CANCER June 21-July 22 You are hardly aware of the strong telepathic interchanges taking place and how it affects your attitude toward others.

LEO July 23-Aug. 22 Be prudent in the use of any mind-altering substance. Extreme care should be exercised if anesthesia should be necessary.

VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 22 A romantic relationship takes on an air of mystery and drama. Make no firm commitment until you understand.

LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 22 Look beneath the surface for major defects. The dream home may be more than you care to handle.

SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 21 The intuitive manner in which you communicate with relatives and friends raises questions, and you find yourself trying to explain.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21 Dreaming about making megabucks doesn't pay the rent, but a touch of creative imagination might do the trick.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19 Fulfillment of the needs of a mate or partner elevates the relationship to a higher level of understanding and enjoyment.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18 Draw on an inner strength to remove the obstacles thrown in your path. Emphasis is on healing or mental health.

Both Peninsulas are Beautiful

by Richard Millman

I SEE BY the papers that a state legislator wants to change Michigan's state motto.

Rep. Patrick Gagliardi complains that the motto slights the Upper Peninsula.

The motto, of course, says: "Si quaeris peninsulam amoenam, circumspecte." Translated, that means: "If you seek a pleasant peninsula, look about you."

Mr. Gagliardi, who is from Drummond Island, thinks it should claim that if you seek two pleasant peninsulas, then you should look about you. That's because both the Upper Peninsula and the Lower Peninsula are pleasant.

NO ARGUMENT THERE. But in how many places can Rep. Gagliardi or any other pleasant peninsula-seeker be at any one time?

If you're standing in the Upper Peninsula, or in the Lower Peninsula, the motto is accurate. Only if you're straddling the Straits of Mackinac does the plural apply. The whole idea of changing the motto is superfluous.

Aren't we lucky that we have a full-time legislature, on guard in Lansing, to protect us from such problems as questionable Latin?

We can all sleep more safely each night knowing our intrepid lawmakers are on duty round the clock, keeping an eye on such dangers as fractured Latin grammar.

WHERE ARE PETITIONS — By the way, whatever happened to the petition drive for a part-time legislature?

As I recall, the petition drive was headed by a businessman named Richard Chrysler, who apparently has been devoting most of his time to other endeavors lately.

Is the part-time legislature drive a casualty of Mr. Chrysler's gubernatorial campaign?

It's beginning to look like it, unless somebody else picks up the ball and runs with it.

AYATOLLAH QUILTS T.V. — Over in Iran, Ayatollah Khomeini has decided he appears on TV too often. His solution is simple: He just orders publicity about him to be reduced.

"I don't like it when I see my name mentioned every time I switch on the radio or TV," the Ayatollah is quoted as saying. So he ordered his picture to be taken off the introduction to the evening television news.

Tax Proposal Could Net State $150 Million, Hurt Auto Sales

Warren M. Hoyt, Exec. Dir., MPA

The federal income tax proposal now under consideration by the U.S. Senate could increase Michigan's state revenue by up to $150 million, a memo prepared by the Office of Revenue and Tax Analysis in the Department of Management and Budget said.

The same memo, however, said elimination of some current deductions in the federal proposal could hurt the state by cutting automobile sales, reducing capital investments and damaging efforts to reform the property tax system.

The memo says there could be both direct and indirect impacts on the state's revenues and economic climate as a result of the proposal which was passed unanimously last week by the U.S. Senate Finance Committee.

The proposal, drafted by Oregon Republican Robert Packwood endorsed by President Reagan, is before the full U.S. Senate.

The revenue analysis division said the revenue gains would not be automatic, and could only come upon the Legislature amending the current reference to the federal tax code to take advantage of any Internal Revenue Service changes.

If the reference to the federal tax is not changed, then state taxpayers could continue to figure their Michigan income tax using current provisions for calculating adjusted gross income.

Under the proposal, the current 14 income tax brackets would be reduced to two, 15 percent and 27 percent; the individual exemptions would be increased from the current $1,080 to $1,900; state and local income taxes along with property taxes would be deductible but sales taxes would not; two-earner deductions would not be allowed; capital gains income would be taxed as ordinary income contributions to individual retirement accounts would not be deductible if an individual is covered by a corporate pension; and business investment tax credits would be repealed.

The proposal to tax capital gains as ordinary income could net the state from $60 million to $85 million, the memo said.

The limitations on IRA deductions "indicates a potential drop of 70 percent in the number of persons eligible for tax deductible IRAs," which could result in another

His proclamation certainly underlines one of the big differences between his way of running a government, and how it's done in the United States. Over here, lots of public officials — from presidents and governors on down — probably would lust after such control of the media.

An editorial comment by the Detroit Free Press (in another context, however) also seems appropriate here:

Though the American media are often criticized for focusing too much on disasters, deaths and disappointments, societies where the news is always good are usually dreadful places. Uniformly good news is usually government-controlled news, designed to tell people only what some dictator thinks they should know. Good news abounds in places where reporting actual conditions might help foment revolution."

In both regards, you can't help but ponder the Soviet handling of information about the Chernobyl nuclear disaster. I wonder what really happened?

OUR LANGUAGE GROWS — The English language is a growing, vibrant institution, and the Chernobyl disaster once again proves it.

The term "meltdown" has entered our language with a vengeance, applied in all sorts of situations.

For example, the Chernobyl disaster by itself produced more than one meltdown. A recent headline referred to "the political meltdown" throughout Europe caused by the nuclear accident.

And in Washington, as the Packwood tax reform bill found its way through the legislative process, spokesmen for one of the affected pressure groups warned of "a tax meltdown as far as housing is concerned."

The possibilities are limitless. Michigan baseball fans, for example, might be concerned by the meltdown of the Detroit Tiger pitching staff — and the team's efforts as a whole, too. Johnny Carson might become concerned about the meltdown of listener support if Joan Rivers' upcoming nighttime TV talk show proves a hit. America's farmers could be said to be the victims of price meltdown. Any innovative wordsmith can provide additional examples.

Yes, English is indeed a living language. No wonder it's difficult to use correctly at times. In fact, I've noticed quite a grammatical meltdown in social conversations lately.

MONEY FOR RADIOS — Kirk Wakefield, representing the Crawford County Special Tactical and Response Team (START) receives a check from Heide Miller, representing the Crawford County Deputy Sheriff Association. The Deputy Sheriff Association donated money for two radios for START and the Crawford County Board of Commissioners allocated money for six radios. The radios are special head units with boom microphones to allow hands-free use. There are seven members currently in the START group and they have been training the last three years to be available to assist in hostage or terrorist situations.

Safe Picnic Food

by Gail Edwards,

Extension Home Economist

Summertime is also cook-out and picnic time. A meal in the back yard or at a park with friends can be relaxing and enjoyable. It can also result in food poisoning unless you take special care to keep hot foods hot (above 140 degrees F) and cold foods cold (below 40 degrees F).

Bacteria that spoil food and cause people to feel sick thrive at 98 to 99 degree body temperature. Maintaining foods at safe temperatures during summer picnics and cookouts means planning ahead.

If you are traveling to your picnic site and the food will be unrefrigerated more than 15 minutes, try to follow some safety guidelines:

- Use a cold ice chest - without ice - to keep hot foods hot.

- If you're traveling a long distance and it's possible to do so, refrigerate the hot foods and reheat them just before serving. Make sure to allow sufficient time in the refrigerator so the hot food becomes completely chilled before you place it in the ice chest.

- Carry perishables in small quantities so there won't be any leftovers. If there are leftovers, it's safer to throw them away.

- Non-perishable foods, such as nuts, fruits, crackers, raw vegetables and cookies - are always safe for picnics.

- Be sure that meats are cooked thoroughly.

Resource Review

by Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

The Dept. of Natural Resources oversees safety training in four areas, as mandated by statute. The four areas are: Hunter Safety, Marine Safety, Snowmobile Safety and ORV Safety. In general, a youngster 12 to 16 must pass the appropriate safety course before taking part in the activity.

The original conception of the safety training included the use of volunteers to teach the courses. This is best illustrated in the Hunter Safety Program. We have some very dedicated and active sportsmen who take the time to help young hunters.

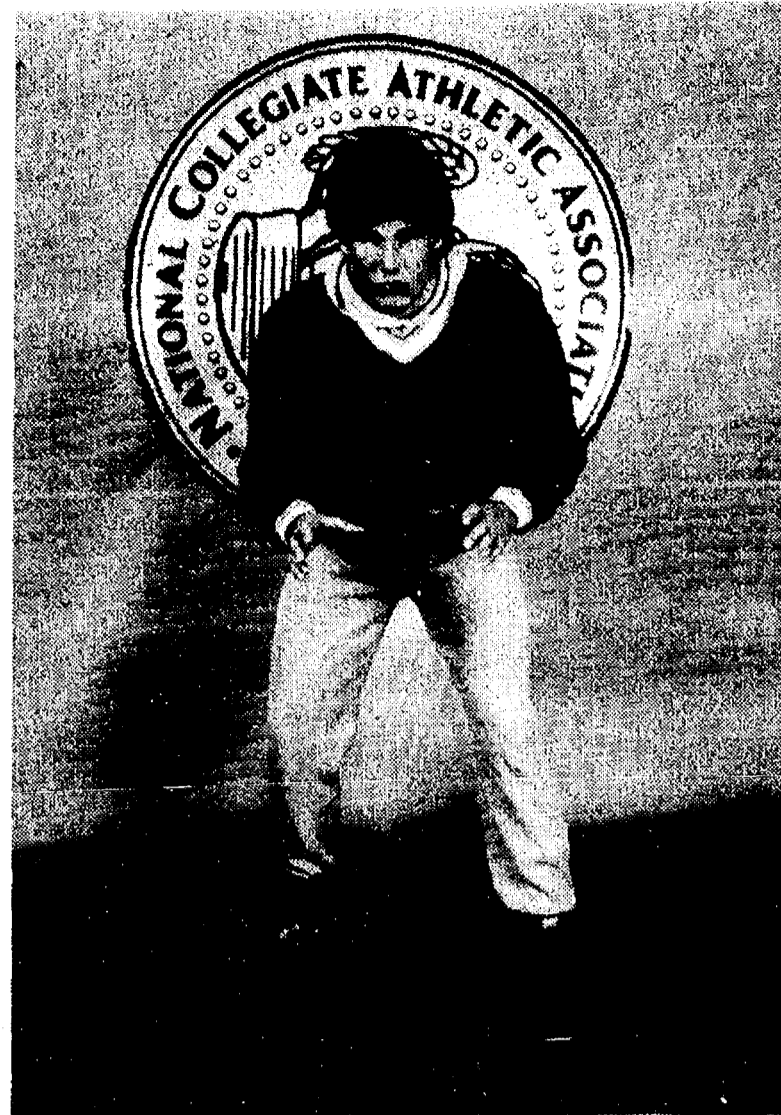

Sheriff's Departments around the state play an important role in the Marine and Snowmobile safety programs, offering several classes each year.

For some reason, however, Off Road Vehicles enthusiasts do not seem to be concerned for the welfare of youngsters in their sport. Statewide there are problems finding people who care enough to offer a few hours of their time to help kids get off on the right foot. A look at the number of ORV accidents and injuries suffered (especially on "three-wheelers") shows that the need for the training is there.

Anyone who wishes to offer their time and expertise to help prevent these accidents should contact their local Conservation Officer. The ORV season is just getting started, please help make it a safe one.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

by Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

You have no doubt heard and pondered the question regarding the chicken and the egg, but have you thought about which came first, the honey bee or the rose?

About 100 million years ago the first flowering plants appeared; and along with them must have developed the pollinating insects- the bees, wasps, moths and butterflies. Flowers and these insects have had a close association ever since.

We all know that the color of the flowers is one of the attracting factors, but did you know wasps tongues are short, honey bee tongues are longer, bumble bee tongues are still longer; and the tongues of the moths and butterflies are the longest of all. Therefore, these different insects are attracted to different types of flowers. Those flowers that the butterflies cannot get nectar from are just the ticket for the bees.

Something else to wonder at. A study conducted in Wisconsin determined that bees leaving the hive have a negative charge in their bodies, and when they return to the hive they have a positive charge. It is thought the negative charge helps the bees attract pollen grains, which in turn increases their ability to pollinate plants.

Herbal Corner

Dearheart, once in the spring and the same in the fall, I have a blank wall when it comes to writing this column. It behooves me to reflect on this because I am normally not without words.

Sitting at my kitchen window, dreamily conscious of my senses, the speeding cars on the highway trigger memories of my years down state — the race of nine to five and running errands during and after these hours and on the weekends. I used to volunteer my services to various organizations, joined clubs, and fought all four levels of government — Federal, State, County, and City. (And just for the record, I never lost.)

Spotting the robin in the birdbath in the gardens I am aware of the fresh breeze caressing my face as it comes through the window and it smells sweet, not full of gas fumes and greasy food. The lawn is trimmed neat with a cool lushness, unlike hot pavement and concrete. The robin bathes and a hummingbird sits on the rail of his feeder while surveying his surroundings in quick motions. I am sore and tired, but it is a good tired because I have accomplished something. I have created a place for others to enjoy; and they travel from other states once or twice a year just to go through the gardens.

There is peace here and contentment. There is no running in place on that imaginary treadmill like I did all those years ago. My movements are slower now but with purpose and I am pleased. My mind clears and the blank wall disappears. There are still things to learn and things to teach. What is this twice a year? Growth? Awareness? You tell me, darlin'.

Herbally yours,
E. Diona Cerelli, C.H.

New Brother / New Sister Program Set

The New Brother/New Sister program at Mercy Hospital, Grayling will hold its regular monthly class on Monday, June 30 at 7 p.m. in the hospital board room. This program familiarizes children with the hospital and where their mother will be when she comes to the hospital to have the new baby.

"The arrival of a new baby is an exciting and confusing time for children, especially first children," said Kathy Zelinski, nursing coordinator of obstetrical and pediatric units at Mercy. "There are so many new feelings attached to this event, we want to help the children recognize that they are all OK feelings."

Children will be shown a short film on babies, shown how to hold a baby, taken on a tour of the Obstetrics Unit, dressed in gowns and hats they will wear when they visit their mother, and will make a welcome home sign for mother and baby. Children can bring a favorite doll or stuffed animal to the program for practice holding a baby.

This class is appropriate for children ages 2½ to 10. Younger children should be accompanied by an adult or older child. Classes are free to parents and children delivering at Mercy Hospital. Parents delivering elsewhere may have their child attend for a $2 material fee.

Summer classes will meet on June 30, July 21 and August 25. Parents must register for any of these class dates by calling 348-5461, ext. 320.

Completes Air Force Training

Steven H. Lee, son of Anne L. Lee of 2909 Waterford, Saginaw, and Harold W. Lee of 1 Manistee Road, Grayling, has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

Oddly enough, a big league baseball player once actually caught his own home run!...How's this possible?...It happened to Dixie Walker one day in 1946 at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn...Dixie hit a home run into the screen above the right field fence...The ball stuck there for a moment...At the end of the inning, Walker went out to play his position in right field, and as he neared the fence the ball suddenly started to drop out of the screen...Walker ran over, made the catch, and became the only man in history who ever caught his own home run!

Believe it or not, a complete 9-inning big league baseball game was once played in 51 minutes!...It was a game between the Giants and Phils in 1919.

Has any rookie ever been able to win the batting championship in big league baseball?...It's happened only ONCE in history...The only rookie to lead a major league in batting at the end of any season was Tony Oliva, who won the American League batting title in 1964.

I bet you didn't know...That Scheer Motors is now offering an unlimited mileage warranty on any of our new GM cars. This warranty is also transferable to the second owner. The warranty increases trade value.

The Welfare Dilemma
Dear Editor,
How can the American Welfare system be expected to function even minimally when it is shaped by more than 20 Congressional committees, 50 state legislatures, 6 cabinet departments, 3 federal agencies; 54 state and federal territorial agencies and more than 1,500 county welfare departments?

After that question, you can dwell on the deficit. If the preceding don't grab and startle the American Taxpayers, then we as a nation have lost our ability to be concerned about the nation's fiscal deficit situation.

The pork barrel is empty and the time is near for restraint from Congress - rather than breaking all records in spending our tax dollars - they should ask themselves one question. Is this, that or whatever necessary?, and get on with business for which they were elected.

Sincerely,
Ann E. Borgerson

June 2, 1986
Mr. William Schuette
P.O. Box 631
Midland, MI. 48640

Congressman Schuette:
I was pleased to see your letter appear in the May 22 issue of the Crawford County Avalanche. Your avowed interest in the AuSable River, though misguided and misinformed, gives me solace in knowing you have solved the pressing national problems of deficits, tax reform and farm failures. Yes, I am comforted to know that my concerns over federal designation of Michigan wilderness land areas, and the future of Wakeley Lake in our county, now under the U.S. Forest Service have been relieved through your personal efforts.

Misinformed, you really are: Your letter states "NRC has recommended imposing." The N.R.C., under Michigan Legislative Authority, dictated that "Catch and Release fishing regulations apply. You go on to say, "I am opposed to this proposal."

Congressman, you may be right in challenging the N.R.C. Commission Authority. Circuit Court Judge Davis has already joined you in wanting to ignore the Commission's authority to set regulations. I like your and the Judge's approach for around my home we are plagued with hordes of deer and rabbits who destroy our young trees and gardens. These beasts also cause me much economic anguish. And, those N.R.C. commission "elitists" have the effrontery to set game laws which prevent my killing these creatures. This N.R.C. commission is taking away my rights, as you claim.

Mr. Schuette, you may be on the right track. Maybe you and State Senator Binsfeld (also a no-kill opponent) could rid our state of all legally appointed commissions and their heinous rulings. How much more simple life would be without the Insurance Commission and the public service commission, and all other bureaucratic regulatory agencies.

You wrote, "The stated purpose is to increase the number of large trout." Wrong again: The problem, as stated in D.N.R. report No. 1927, is the overall decrease in the abundance of wild brown trout. The number of 8"-12" brown trout has reduced by 32%. You state that fishermen aren't responsible. But, the harvest (kill) of these fish increased from 440 per year to 2000 per year. These 70% supposedly (not verified) releasing fish must be your voters - the fish killers are obviously downstate democrats.

You're wrong again, or have new secret information, 59% of the people of Michigan did not oppose mandatory Catch and Release. The D.N.R. counted only 400 ballots (hardly a representative sample of the population of Michigan). Your mathematics are good though for only 59% of the 400 opposed to no-kill.

You say - "No need to fix something that isn't broken." Twenty four states with trout rivers have effective Catch and Release regulations including such urban states as Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts. Nothing broken, where?

I voted for you, thought I was right. Now I'm not sure. Are You?

Very truly yours,
Benjamin F. Butts

American Legion Auxiliary News

by Laurie Jensen,
P.R. Director

I know that this Friday is graduation and many of you will be very busy, probably to busy to cook. Why not stop down to the Grayling American Legion Post and have a roast beef dinner? For the low price of $5.00 for Adults and $2.50 for children 12 & under you can enjoy a salad bar, mashed potatoes, gravy, a vegetable, roll, dessert and coffee or milk for the kids. Doesn't that sound like a good deal? Dinner will be served from 5 to 9 p.m. Benefits from this will help the Auxiliary's Toys for Tots program for 1986.

Ladies, our election of officers will be held Wednesday, June 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the post hall. Please attend.

Mark June 14 on your calendars. The installation of officers for both the post and auxiliary will begin promptly at 5 p.m. A potluck dinner will immediately follow the ceremony. Please bring a dish to pass.

Until next time...Have a nice day!!

Commission on Aging

Many persons may not realize that services offered by the Commission on Aging can also be used on a temporary basis. A good example is our Meals on Wheels program, which can be used by seniors who have recently been discharged from the hospital; have been ill with the flu; or have broken a bone, such as an arm or leg. After recovery, the meal deliveries can be discontinued.

Another example is our Senior Companion program. Seniors who are temporarily homebound can have a companion come to their home to visit, to play cards or games, to write letters, or just to have a friend.

Call the COA office (348-8031), and see just how flexible we can be. Our services can be scheduled to fit your needs.

Host Families For Exchange Students Needed

Helping to bring the world together, one friendship at a time. That is the goal of an organization seeking families in Northern Michigan to host foreign exchange students.

SHARE! is a non-profit high school student exchange program that is looking for host families for students from several different countries that will be arriving in late August for the 1986-87 school year.

There are students needing homes from Norway, Ecuador, the Philippines, Brazil, France, Japan, Germany, Italy and several other countries.

Families provide room and board to the students, offering the same love and guidance they give their own children. Students have conversational ability in English and are expected to pay for their own incidental expenses.

Host families are eligible for a $50 dollar monthly tax deduction during the program, which runs for one or two semesters.

"It is an excellent opportunity for a family to learn more about the world," according to John Smock, representative John Smock. "The student will become a son or daughter to your family while attending high school and participating in community activities," said Smock.

To host a student, or for more information about the SHARE! program, call Smock at 517/348-9188 or write Rt. 5, Box 5053, Grayling, MI 49738.

Students Visit Detroit Institute of the Arts

by Erin Hickey

"Going to the DIA was a very interesting experience well worth the bus ride," says freshman Lori Dean.

Forty nine Grayling High and Middle School art, Advanced Studies, and Spanish students traveled to the Detroit Institute of the Arts on April 22, 1986.

The tour was organized by Ms. Nancy Lemmen, Spanish and Advanced Studies teacher at Grayling High, to view the temporary exhibit of Mexican artist Diego Rivera. Rivera was an artist of the early to mid-1900s whose involvement in the Communist party was evident through his portraits and paintings of labor and working conditions. He painted murals on various buildings throughout Mexico and the United States, including the National Palace in Mexico City, Rockefeller Center in New York, and the Detroit Institute of the Arts.

Lemmen was assisted on the trip by chaperones Ms. Lynn Thompson, art teacher, and Ms. Rita Siders, GMS teacher. Students attending were: (from the Middle School) Rochelle Carl, Tanya Latuszek, Hannah Peterson, and Angie Thompson.

Freshman Cheryl Barber, Lori Dean, Linda Denton, Theresa Doe, Chad Flowers, Cathy Hayes, Tim Hickey, Sean Isenhauer, John Kraus, Todd Laitinen, Sonda Lawson, Steve Peterson, Andrea Schanz, Sue Stanley, and Patti Tremblay also attended.

Kathy Allen, Beth Bedard, Nancy Cybart, Larry Duvall, Billy Jo Hawley, Tina Meldrum, and Jay Ruddy were also in attendance.

Due to the success of this first trip, the students of all three departments are looking forward to more visits to the DIA in the future.

"Hello..."

"When you answer the telephone and announce the name of our organization," said the company president to his staff, "you are our company."

"You are the only person in our organization the caller may ever meet. If your voice does not communicate warmth, helpfulness, and cordiality, that person will have a negative view of who we are. Please remember," he pleaded, "that when you speak, you speak for all of us."

The company president's logic (and reality) applies to every area of life. When we speak, whether on telephone or in person, people not only judge who we are but also who we represent by what we say and HOW we say it.

I know one chief executive officer of a company who always calls prospective employees at home "just to hear their daily, unguarded telephone manners. It is a test they must pass to become part of our organization," he says.

HOW we speak and WHAT we say reveals not only WHO we are, but who we represent.

Paul puts it this way: "Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel..." (Phil. 1:27)

Who Will Care For The Elderly?

Life expectancy in 1900 was 47; today, 74. Everywhere within the Western industrialized nations life expectancy has increased. With the ever-increasing life span, a major problem is developing.

As low birthrates continue to deplete the ranks of the young, and life expectancies continue to rise problems will arise. Longer life expectancies push up the costs of health care and old-age pensions, while a declining birthrate puts a greater tax burden upon workers who must support the system. It's a major new dilemma for governments.

As ever-growing elderly population supported by fewer and fewer workers creates an inverted pyramid, expanding at the top while shrinking at the bottom.

Today the lessening ratio of workers, contributing to support ever-increasing senior citizen populations can be likened to a gathering thunderstorm. And the storm is fast approaching.

In the United States the ranks of the very old - those in their 80's and beyond - are the fastest growing age group. The cost to care for them will increase by two thirds in the next 15 years. By the year 2000 more benefits will be provided to octogenarians than any other subgroup of the aged or for that matter the general population. Within the United States about three and a half workers support one pensioner. This ratio will drop to two and a half to one within the next decade.

Carnation Community Service Award

by Aleta Thompson

The Carnation Community Service Award will be presented June 21st at the Retired Senior Volunteer Program Recognition Dinner. The award, donated by the Carnation Company, honors a group that gives generously of themselves for the benefit of the community. A further objective is to direct public attention to the importance of volunteer activity. The engraved Paul Revere design silver bowl, along with a citation, will be presented to a non-profit organization. The selection of the recipient of the 1986 award was made by the Retired Senior Volunteer Program Advisory Council at their April 16, 1986 meeting.

Established in 1972 by the Carnation Company, the community award is now initiated throughout the United States. The award has been presented through RSVP to the Historical Society in 1975, Grayling Booster Club in 1976, Lions Club in 1977, Business and Professional Women's Club in 1981, the American Red Cross in 1982, Hartwick Pines Natural History Association in 1983, the Crawford AuSable Schools in 1984 and 1985 Grayling Rotary Club.

The June 21st RSVP Recognition Dinner honors all Retired Senior Volunteers and in appreciation of their volunteer hours served in the community. All Retired Senior Volunteers who have served 30 hours or more are guests of RSVP. Dinner for all other guests is $6.00.
